2. Soviet personnel working in China during the past two years generally have observed these instructions scrupulously. They have rarely been found drunk or beating Chinese at will. They have shown respect for women and, on the whole, their attitude has met the requirements for Sino-Soviet friendship. They have established good working conditions with the Chinese Communist personnel with whom they work.

CLASSIFICATION CO/PAGRET
STATE	#_	1	NAVY	#	Z->-	nsrb		7///	PHAR	THON.
ARMY	_#	N.	AIR	#		FOA			71	144[
				ئېد دست. د د										***************************************
											Document	No	011
erit Gest					;				i		No Change	In Class	S. 🗍	1 1 1 3	als I state
		•									Declass
.*	٠.										Class. Char	iged To:	TS	s 🕜 🛚

Approved For Release 2006/02/28 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009200260041.4

Approved For Release 2006/02/28 RDP82-00457R009200260011-4

SECURITY INFORTALINAL!

CENTRAL DITELLIGENCE AGENCY

25X1A

as 2 ma

The highest Chinese Communist authorities have concurrently issued special instructions to their subordinate agencies saying that thore agencies should confirm to the recommondations made by the Soviet experts, and accept Soviet super vision vacchesartedly. As a result of these instructions, efficiency and progress have been noticeable.

CONFIDENTIAL